“When my team was called to Japan on short notice to meet with senior Japanese government officials, Bridges to Japan saved the day! Within a very short period of time, they equipped our team with a very solid toolbox with which to navigate our interactions with our Japanese hosts with confidence.” – Sr. Manager Sustainability Solutions, IBM

“It’s not easy to negotiate multiple cultural differences in a business environment. Ms. Jakubowski, with a deep understanding of and sensitivity to Japanese cultural and business practices, gracefully and effectively navigates these waters. A must have resource for Japanese and Americans co-mingling in business!” – Director of Business, Mitsukoshi USA, Inc.

“Developing business from Japan had been a significant achievement for my company. However, to maintain the revenue stream I knew it was critical to provide my team with the proper training to manage and support our Japanese customers. Not only did our consultant have an impressive range of knowledge about the Japanese culture, but the training itself was executed in an exceptionally engaging and professional format. When I saw my team in action in Japan after going through the Surviving Japan seminar, I knew the investment had already paid for itself many time over.” – President & Founder, Striding Edge, Inc.

“Ms. Jakubowski possesses exceptional insight into Japanese culture. These insights are effectively utilized in her seminars, helping both Americans and Japanese to understand cultural differences in conducting business and effectively bridging these gaps.” – General Affairs Manager, Nissei America
